The full force of the heavy thunderstorm that swept over Connecticut on Sunday struck Taftville about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon and for minutes hail stones as big as marble rained down, whitening streets an walks and laying low many young plants, Local people said that the downpour was the worst that has struck the village in some months. A least one farmer suffered considerable loss, for a number of his week-old chickens were killed by the hall. South of Taftville there was no hall and but little rain. North of the village the hall and rain was so heavy that sand

Bible Class Outing. About twenty members of the Bible the Taftville Congregational church enjoyed an outing to Ocean beach on Saturday. They left about 2 o'clock in the afternoon and made the trip in Lathrop's Faunch, returning at 9 o'clock in the evening. Rev. Arthur Varley, the pastor, accompanied them.

CARD OF THANKS. While Mr Joseph Durman was ill in the hospital and at his home, at his demise and funeral, relatives and many friends and neighbors showed their good Samaritan spirit, by rendering their great assistance in many ways. We desire in this meagre way to express our thanks and show our appreciation of every kindiy act, and we feel especially grateful to those who sent flowers. All these deeds will be cherished in our memories. (Signed) Mrs. Joseph Durman and Mr. John Mehrholz.

Kuster States in Sermon. At the high mass in St .Patrick's hurch Sunday, Rev. Francis J. Kuster ontinued in the series of sermons on Confession which he has been giving this month. He spoke of the requirements for a good confession—a thorough examination of considence, deep sorrow, the firm purpose of amendment, a worthy, open and sincere confession of sins, and satisfaction, in making reparation to God as far as pos-siple by prompt and cheerful perform-ance of the penance imposed. of confessing sin; hence, the preacher said, it is the part of wisdom to make each confession full and free and sinere, as though it were the last. Christ has given to his duly deputed priests the power to forgive sin, fol-owing proper confession, contrition and reparation; the power to forgive or to retain. Confession is incumbent on every member of the Catholic church, priest and layman. The preacher made reference to the obligation of every confessor to treat all confessions with confidence which nothing can break; and the wonderful record of the church since its beginning, when, though an
